Fund Performance Summary

The table above shows the historical performance of the Variable Investment Options invested in shares of the Funds offered by The Prudential Insurance Company of America ("Prudential") through the PruBenefit Select group flexible premium variable universal life insurance contract (the "Group Contract").

"Inception date" is the date the Fund was first made available to Contract Holders. The Group Contract was first offered on June 30, 2006. As of June 30, 2011, Prudential no longer offers these contracts for sale.

The "Cumulative Total Return" for each Fund is the difference between the end of period share value and the beginning of period share value, divided by the beginning of period share value, expressed as a percentage. Returns of less than one year are not annualized.

The "Average Annual Total Return" for each Fund reflects the reinvestment in each Fund of all dividends and capital gains, and the deduction of all investment management fees and expenses. The returns do not reflect other charges under the Group Contract (premium loads, cost of insurance, administrative charges, transfer charges and mortality and expense risk charges), which would significantly lower the returns shown. Upon request, Prudential will provide an illustration of historical performance which reflects the effect of the cost of insurance provisions under your Group Contract.

Past performance does not guarantee future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than the past performance data quoted. The investment return and principal value of an investment fluctuates so that the investor's share, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The most recent quarter-end performance is shown.

Before allocating premium payments, you should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the Group Contract and the underlying Funds. The Group Contract prospectus and the underlying Fund prospectuses contain information relating to the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses as well as other important information. You should read the prospectuses carefully before investing. To obtain a copy of the prospectuses contact your Registered Representative, or contact us by phone at 1-800-286-7754. The Group Contract was sold by prospectus only. It is possible to lose money when investing in securities. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than past performance data quoted.

An investment in the Money Market Portfolio ("Portfolio") is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Although the Portfolio seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in the Portfolio. The yield quotation more closely reflects the current earnings of the Money Market Portfolio than the total return quotation.

Strategies such as asset allocation and diversification does not assure a profit or protection against loss in declining markets.

Small-cap and mid-cap stocks have limited marketability and may be subject to more abrupt or erratic market movements than large-cap stocks.

Investing in foreign securities presents certain unique risks not associated with domestic investments, such as currency fluctuation and political and economic changes

For government Funds, the U.S. Government guarantee applies only to the underlying securities of the Fund's portfolio and not to the value of the Fund's shares.

Fixed income investments are subject to interest rate risk, and that their value will decline as interest rates rise.

The Group Contract has exclusions, limitations, reductions of benefits and terms for keeping it in force.

Capitalized terms not defined herein are as defined in the Group Contract.
