

Vendor Terms of Engagement

Solicitation, Sale or Distribution of Products, Services or Literature

You may not solicit for any cause or any organization while on Prudential property, or while conducting business on behalf of Prudential, at any time. In addition, you may not distribute literature related to such solicitation while on Prudential property, or while conducting business on behalf of Prudential, at any time. This includes solicitation on behalf of any organization for charity or distribution for sale of any type of goods, raffle tickets, or the like. Prudential's communication systems, including its e-mail, telephone, voice mail and facsimile systems and equipment, shall not be used at any time for non-work related solicitation, the promotion of goods or services, or on behalf of causes or outside organizations.
